

FALLS OF FALLOCH.

H. B. Wimbush.

"THE TORRENT DOWN THE ROCKY DELL CAME THUNDERING LOUD AND FAST," Wordsworth.

“LOCH LOMOND.”
“OILETTE” [PLATE-MARKED] No. 9746.
Raphael Tuck & Sons’
ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

By Appointment.

The Falls of Falloch are formed by the river which runs through the midst of charming Glen Falloch, at the northern end of Loch Lomond. The lower part of this beautiful glen is well wooded, but higher up the country is more open, and the river, at a spot about 3 to 4 miles from Ardlui, rushing over its rocky bed, forms a series of rapids or falls of great beauty.

Printed in England

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE

POSTKARTE

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

